

Tuesday 21st June 2011

Myself, Katie and Meg rolled up to The Fox pub just in time to meet the players for some dinner. I asked Scrant to sum up the day and after 10 minutes of trying to break through the tears (tears of joy on my arrival) she was able to stutter out the words "We whooped their a^$€$" and from the scores this appeared to be true: today Worcestershire and Herefordshire secured a 5.5 to 3.5 victory against Berkshire. This morning was a whitewash as the whole team won all three of the foursomes matches. This afternoon, in the singles Cath earned a half and Anna won. Kaz also won on the 18th with a debatable textbook par. Even though her ball wasn't the ditch her feet were which brought her down to the same height of every other woman in Britain.

The players have made a number of requests: firstly they would like to pass on their thanks to all of the trolley pullers who are doing a wonderful job. Special congratulations to Dr D aka: "The Caddy Master" who managed to actually switch on a trolley.

Secondly and an extra special thank you to the UNMISSABLE ball spotters. Unfortunately sacrifices have to be made.... YOU KNOW WHEN YOU'VE BEEN TANGOED!

Thirdly the players have made a plea on behalf of Cath. Cath does not have a Glenmuir green county sleeveless jumper, instead she has to wear a green jumper knitted by her very own mother. Even though her mother did beautifully with the jumper, the players feel Cath- a valued member of the team, deserves the 'real deal'. I can speak for everyone when I say we look forward to the jumper presentation!
